

Thane and Lisa Liming

The Limings' and their two children reside in Sarasota County. As real estate investors themselves, Thane and Lisa understand the concerns of those who leave their homes unoccupied for part of the year. They understand that trust and professionalism are key components in running a home maintenance service, and place a high value on providing their clients with peace of mind.

Who better qualified to care for your property? Thane has his Florida Real Estate license, as well as his home inspection certification, and has overseen the remodeling of his own investor properties here in Florida.

Now you can be worry free when you leave your home knowing that Thane and Lisa will care for it as if it were their own. WatchDog Services is a family owned and operated company. Guardians for your property in the sun!
